

Gardening Class in Tell City

Now is the perfect time to start planning your garden! Success begins with preparation, and we're here to help. Join us on March 23 for an in-depth guide to achieving a thriving garden.

LOCATION

In the Community Center
434 13th Street
Tell City, IN

TIME : 3:00PM

REGISTER ONLINE:

www.hopelives.church/events

Presenter: Roger Burns is a licensed plant nurseryman with dual licenses in Indiana and over 60 years of experience in growing plants.

MARCH 23, 2025 3PM

Part 1:

- What is a garden, and why should you garden?
- Understanding weeds: Identification and management
- Determining the right garden size for your needs
- The cost of gardening: Budgeting for success
- Understanding seeds: Bio-engineered, hybrid, open-pollinated, and heirloom varieties

Part 2:

- Soil health: Compost, fertilizers, and the importance of NPK
- When and what to plant: Timing for optimal growth
- Sprouting essentials and key gardening tips
- The role of temperature in plant success

Part 3:

- Gardening anywhere: Exploring different gardening methods
- Harvesting and preservation techniques
- Choosing the best type of garden for your space
- Ideal planting locations for maximum yield